

Occupying the southern and northeastern portion of Panay Island, Iloilo is the commercial, cultural and intellectual center of Western Visayas from the dawn of history. Iloilo City, the vibrant capital, is a booming financial center.

Of all Iloilo's treasures, the richest is its resilient people. Considered as the birthplace of Malayan civilization in the Philippines, present-day Ilonggos are a complex lot, most come from Malay stock with varying infusions of Chinese and Spanish ancestries. They are gregarious, fun-loving people whose hospitality is legendary.

Wherever your travels take you in Iloilo, you will experience the unique charm of this historic province. It is an extra-ordinary destination of remarkable sites and attractions: a rendezvous of street dancing in January; retreat in April; beachcombing in May; from June to October, it is a bustling education center; and the closest thing to white Christmas in December.
