

Welcome to Bacolod City - the Cleanest and Greenest and Most Liveable City in the Philippines. The capital of the Province of Negros Occidental which is the sugar bowl of the Philippines. Bacolod City serves as the entrance of the sugar-rich cities and towns of the province. Visitors' facilities abound, modern means of in-land transport can take guests for business or leisure to any point in the island of Negros.

Bacolod will charm you with the genuine warmth and hospitality of her people in harmony with their lilting melodious accent. The Bacole will delight you with food and cuisine that is as vigorous yet as subtle as the legendary Ilonggo gentility and taste for the good life.

Bacolod is also home to the annual Masskara Festival, their biggest event which reflects the Bacoleno's love for fun and gaiety. Coinciding with the city's charter day celebration, the festival features a float parade, carnivals, fairs, and a mardi-gras style by costumed and masked dancers.
